BC's FIRST REAL 'LITTLE THEATER' TO BE COMPLETED AS PART OF RENOVATION OF OLD STUDENT UNION BUILDING

By MIKE SCHINDELE
Roundup Feature Editor

At a cost of $33,000, the ballroom of the old Student Union building is being turned into BC's first "little theater" since the college was founded in 1932.

Dwane Kern, BC's business manager, placed the total cost of renovating the old SUB into the theater and the annex for the music, speech, and drama departments at $48,000. He said the firm of Hummel, Hummel, Jones and Shawver had done the architectural work on the building.

The theater, which Robert Dewey, speech and drama instructor, termed, "Probably one of the most original in Idaho," will be the first complete facility the speech and drama department has had on campus.

For the last three years the department has held its plays on the second floor of the library building in what is now the periodical department. Before the library was built, however, the department presented its efforts in the music auditorium and before that, the T-1 building saw the plays held in it.

In addition to the second floor, "little theater" contractors are presently remodeling the first floor of the old SUB. The ground level will now serve as classrooms and music practice rooms. Presently, the cafeteria remains untouched. The entranceway will serve as the foyer of the theater.

"The theater itself," John E. Warwick, acting chairman of the drama and speech department, reiterated, "will be the first real theater the college has had."

The theater will have a capacity of 130 persons. The audience will be surrounded by deep-blue painted walls, while they watch the plays from real theater seats, which have been placed on a raised level, somewhat like a stadium-bleacher set-up. The stage was constructed with a combination of ideas in mind. It is modeled after the stage in Stratford, Ont., with certain renovations conceived by Warwick. It consists of a "thrust" platform 24 ft. wide and 16 ft. deep, with a balcony located seven feet above it. There are two staircases leading from the balcony to the platform on the right and left of the stage. The entire performance area is painted black.

Situated behind the stage is a prop shop, with a ten-foot opening under the balcony for quick placement or removal of scenery by the stage hands.

At the other end of the theater, two small rooms have been partitioned off. They will serve as storage areas and costuming shops.

Below the prop shop, on the first floor of the building the contractors have installed dressing rooms with all the necessary facilities.

The foyer to the theater will be completely carpeted, and a gold-paint staircase, also carpeted, will take the theatergoer to the second floor. The dark blue painted stairwell will also serve as a sort of art gallery.

Completion of the theater is expected to be some time this month, with the first performance to be held in it April 18. "Midsummer Night's Dream" will be the first work presented in the new facility.

Warwick said the theater will be used daily next year, with various classes in drama and directing being held there. He added that five plays would be presented by the drama department next year. He said that with all the time and preparation that must go into each play, the theater would not be used for any other purpose.

MARCH 1 DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS SET BY REGISTRAR

The deadline for making applications for graduation for the spring graduation of May 12, 1968, is March 1. After this time no further applications will be accepted for either the two-year or four-year programs.

Any student who wants to check on the status of his application should see Mrs. Alice Hatton, registrar.

Also, a reminder to all graduating students that any change in his or her course program on which graduation is based should be checked through with the registrar along with any changes in names.

At graduation, mementos in the form of a wallet-sized, plastic-encased miniatures of each student's diploma will be given out along with the original diploma itself. This is being done for the first time in the college's history and is the reason for the March 1 deadline for graduation applications.

Luncheon Held For Boise Legislators

At a luncheon in the Boise College SUB Feb. 7, President John Barnes addressed a group of legislators.

Speaking on the development of the college, Barnes explained the need of using student building fees to bring BC up to par with other schools, since the state does not have the necessary funds to do so in the short time desired.

Dr. Barnes also explained that Boise College would not duplicate instruction provided at the other Idaho schools.

The luncheon was sponsored by the college Young Republicans, with Roundup Political Editor Ron Oliver introducing the speaker.

DR. JOHN B. BARNES enjoys a luncheon with the state legislators prior to addressing the group on the development of Boise College. Seated with the president are (l. to r.) Ron Oliver, Roundup Political Editor who introduced the speaker; Gary Johnson, Chairman of the College Young Republicans who sponsored the dinner; Barnes; and Dr. Peter Wilson, advisor to the club.

PROFESSOR JOHN SEWARD hands Esquire Lynn Carlson his contribution for the proposed Mall. Seward led the faculty in donations by being first to sign the pledge club.

Esquire Memorial Mall to Be Constructed Starting April 1 Between L. A. & Library

April 1 has been set as the starting date for construction of the Esquire Memorial Mall which will fill the area between the Library and Liberal Arts building, according to Larry Dresser, project coordinator.

The Mall, planned in commemoration of servicemen who have died for America, will be 192 feet long and 80 feet wide. Constructed of white concrete, the area will be equipped with floral planters, benches, a fountain, and lighting. Two large planters, 40 feet x 8 feet, two smaller planters, a planter-fountain combination, 56 feet by 40 feet, and a series of three planters leading to the Music Auditorium, each 29 feet by 8 feet, are included in the layout.

A flagpole-planter grouping will be built adjacent to the Mall. Funds for the removal of the present flagpole and the erection of a taller pole have been provided for by the Boise Bench Lions. The combination will lie on the present Library-Ad. building walkway.

Fund Chairman Kent Averill placed estimated expenditures for construction at $17,800.

John Poulson and Averill are co-coordinators of fund raising, and they are supported by 10 division chairmen: Dick Carr (On-campus Organizations), William Belknap (Industrial Firms), Art Aamouth (Commercial Firms), Ray Green (Legal Affairs), Tom Chatterton (Social Events), Harvey Hoskins (Civic Organizations), Dennis Barton (Military Organizations), Bob Morgan (Police Departments), Joe Bongiovi (Fire Stations), and Lewis McFarland (Athletic Departments).

Money is being raised from every source. Donations are pledged at division meetings of the college faculty with support already coming from the Biology department. The Sunshine Club, a group of campus secretaries, the Flying Club, and Chaffee Hall have promised funds to the Mall, and both the Elks Gleemen and the Basque Dancers have agreed to give joint concerts with all proceeds going to the Esquires. Plans are in progress for a sports car rally and dance. The Interservice Club Council has promised to match the faculty donations, dollar for dollar.

Broncettes Travel

The high-stepping Boise College Broncettes and cheerleaders will travel to Ogden, Utah, to perform during the halftime activities of the BC-Weber basketball clash in the Utah town. Hank Houst, drill team director, and 25 young women who are led by co-captains Barbara Forman and Linda Garrett, will spend the evening of March 16 in Salt Lake City before returning home.

SCHOLARSHIPS, ANYONE?

Scholarship applications are now being handed out to new and continuing students who have maintained a 3.0 accumulative grade average in high school or college. These applications may be picked up from Mrs. Pauline Hinman in building T-2. They must be filled out and returned by March 15. No applications will be accepted after this date. If anyone has any questions about scholarships, contact Mrs. Hinman.

HERE IN A WELL-KNOWN BRAND OF BATTLE appear Charles F. Smith and Mrs. Leslie J. Smith who, due to the unforgivable error of the editor, found themselves married and without so much as an "If you say so." Charles Smith, who is an art instructor at BC is really married to Mrs. Lois Smith, while Mrs. Leslie J. Smith is better known as Joan Smith, secretary to Dr. William Shankweiler of the Humanities department. The "error" appeared underneath an art exhibit picture two issues ago.

The Score Is . . .

By RON OLIVER

Various people have, through the years, indicated that one should not voice opinions on subjects he knows nothing about. If, therefore, one wished to be technical and use a strict definition of knowledge, he would never need to open his mouth except to eat (and he might as well keep it closed then).

The only rational alternative to the above situation, which is most perplexing since man is, among other things, a communicative animal—the only way out is to allow him the dubious criteria of experience. The more a man has been around and the wider his field of participation, from one end of the spectrum to the other, the greater his right to speak.

Having thus justified myself to those who would doubt my range of experience in the following matters, I shall proceed to criticize the students of this institution. What I mean to say is far too many of the students and many of the faculty are actually far too apathetic to be members of the college scholar group.

Far too many—dare I say the majority of the people on this campus have neither the conviction nor the concern to make this school or themselves into anything to be truly proud of. They are too conservative, too afraid to voice themselves in any way, too incompetent to organize themselves into effective units of experience-knowledge obtaining intellects.

Instead, they haven't the time. Classes, studies, and families take up all their time—except for that reserved for Joe's Bar. The fact is that they do indeed have the time and, furthermore, cannot afford not to use it. It is absurd to say you haven't time to devote to the development of Boise College, especially when you can contribute immensely to the improvement and growth of number one.

This critic himself has been in the apathetic crowd, but even a mediocre reflection revealed that I was wasting a lot of time.

Bratt to Conclude Series of Recitals

Professor C. Griffith Bratt will complete the two and one-half year series of the complete organ works of Bach this coming Sunday at St. Michael's Cathedral on 8th and State Streets at 5 p.m. The public as well as interested Boise College students, is invited to attend.

This concluding concert will consist of the Great Organ Mass, Bach's most mature and philosophical instrumental work, which is at the pinnacle of all music literature according to popular opinion.

With this performance, Bratt concludes a series of 20 recitals which have been played since October 1965 on a monthly basis.

Along with New York, San Francisco and Boston, Boise ranks as one of those cities having heard the complete organ works of Bach in the past 15 years.

Campaigning Begins Feb. 26 for Offices OF ASB Government

Elections for student body offices of president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer will be held March 1. Along with these the new constitution will be up for ratification.

All candidates for offices must have a cumulative 2.0 GPA and be on upper division student by next fall, having 60 or more credit hours. The president is entitled to a $250 scholarship per semester and the other officers will receive a $125 scholarship per semester.

Candidates may pick up petitions in Room A108. They must be returned by 4:00 p.m., Feb. 21. Campaigning will begin Feb. 26 and the election will be held Mar. 1. Polls will be open 9 until 3 p.m. in the SUB and the Library.

VALKYRIE SIGN REACHES FIRST STEP IN ROUTE TO EVENTUAL ERECTION

The new Capitol Boulevard Boise College sign and marquee is reaching the first stage of completion by the Voc-Tech welding class. The class is fabricating the metal framework, which will be faced by red brick, according to the specifications of Signs, Inc.

The framework of the sign is 36 feet long, constructed mainly of 10-inch I-beams and smaller angle iron. Upon completion, the sub-structure will weigh approximately 2,600 lbs.

According to Instructor John T. Ogden, the most difficult part of the structure is the internal tubing which contains the wiring for the lighted portion of the sign. This tubing must come through the brick at exactly the right point behind the letters so that the wiring may travel from one letter to another. The frame is the largest structure ever attempted by the welding shop. Also scheduled to be built by the Voc-Tech shop are the large Bronco mascots that will grace both sides of the pylon.

Members of the welding class working on the project are sophomores Gale Bosworth, Ron Bedke, and Victor Morris. The marquee project is sponsored by the Valkyries and being built by Tau Alpha Pi.

'MOUSE' TO ROAR

The members of Phi Beta Lambda are sponsoring the showing of the movie, "The Mouse That Roared," starring Peter Sellers. It will be shown March 1 in the Liberal Arts Auditorium. The show, based on a book of the same title, is a satirical comedy.

Admission will be 50c for BC students, 75c for adults and children will be priced accordingly.

The next meeting for members and friends of Phi Beta Lambda will be Feb. 29 in the Silver Room of the SUB at 7:00 p.m.

Need something terse and "insightful" to jazz up that sagging term paper or report? If you haven't already discovered this little gold mine, "drag your bod" over to the library and start burrowing through the pamphlet file. Whatever subject you hope to expound upon, you should find something pertinent. Newsletters and leaflets arrive daily dealing with anything from Arabs to zucchinis.

For sociology studies there are monthly publications from the poverty front, such as "Rural Opportunities" and "Community Action," and masses of material on drugs, employment and the status of women. Finding current material about Idaho and Boise may be difficult elsewhere, but in the pamphlet file are several Boise topics, including urban renewal. Idaho is well represented, with information ranging from education to taxation.

Across the aisle is the U. S. government document file. Remember those little gems you sent for when you were in junior high? Here again is a helpful source of valuable in-depth information, including the latest geological survey reports, government research reports, vital statistics, cancer and heart disease reports and statistics, and Supreme Court decisions (since 1966). Other booklets deal with the world food crisis, foreign and domestic economic development, labor, conservation, and problems of the aging.

If it is the future that concerns you, there is a file listing career information about everything from "Able Seamen" to "Zoologists," plus the current "occupational outlook" for many fields. Also in this section are guidance and counseling aids, with suggestions for personal improvement, how to prepare for a job interview, and how to put your best foot forward at the start of your career.

The Student National Education Association will hold a meeting at 7 p.m., in the Silver Room of the SUB. Subject of the meeting will be discipline problems in all phases of education. A discussion session will be held by Miss Virginia Cox, Harvey Pitman and other noted specialists on the subject.

Broncos Win ICAC Title; Mesa, Weber And TVCC Wipeout

By HOWARD WRIGHT
News Bureau Sports Editor

The Boise College Broncos sewed up the ICAC net title Saturday night by defeating Mesa College 81-57. Offensively the BC quint started off a little slow but before many minutes had elapsed they were back in great form, netting a basket nearly every time they were in possession of the ball.

Defense was the Broncos' big asset as time and time again they bottled up Mesa and forced them to give up the ball on technical errors or rushed shots.

From the first minute to the last, BC dominated the ball game. At one point early in the contest BC led by 21 to 9, and by halftime they had the same 12-point lead, 33-21. The second half the Broncos completely dominated the court again and ended up the victors, 81-57.

High scorers for the Broncos were Hart with 26 points, Hill 19, Otey 16 and Ron Austin added 11. Mesa's leading scorers were John Nielson with 12 and Norbert Bedow with 11.

TVCC

Fighting off a desperate closing period rally by TVCC, the Boise College Broncos posted their 21st win of the season Feb. 8, by handing the Chukars a 75-70 setback on the Ontario High court.

Things started slowly with the Chukars feeling out the Broncos, and the Broncos feeling out the strange court. With 10 minutes gone in the opening half, the score was 13-11.

Ronnie Austin then hit six quick points in three minutes and Boise surged into the lead 27-16, and increased it to 37-29 at the half. In the second half it was all Boise until Chukars Mike Moore and Les Harris caused turn-overs and scored 10 points, while the Broncos managed but two.

Otey led the Boise scoring with 22, Austin garnered 20, Hart 16, and Keith Burke chipped in 10. Harris paced Treasure Valley with 33 and Moore backed him up with 15.

Otey grabbed off 18 rebounds and Austin added 12 to lead the Broncos to a 46-32 advantage. Walt Buck let the Chukars with 11. From the field, Boise hit 30 of 69 attempts and added 15 of 21 from the charity stripe. TVCC hit 29 of 78 from the floor, and 12-16 at the line.

WEBER STATE FROSH

Headed by Wendy Hart's 19-point first half, the BC Broncos pulled off a 73-66 win over the Weber State freshman team at the BC fieldhouse.

In addition to Hart's hot shooting, Ronnie Austin lent a hand to the Bronco cause with his valuable back court play. With Keith Burke and Bill Otey in foul trouble during the second half, the Weber State cagers came from 10 points back to trail the Broncos, 55-54.

But Don Cox's free throws with slightly more than seven minutes remaining gave Boise some breathing room, and after Otey had retired on fouls, Coach Satterfield calmed down the anxious Broncos, and Burke and Austin got them moving again.

Four players hit the double scoring figures for each team, with Hart leading the Bronco charge with 23. Dave Sackolwitz paced the Wildcats with 17 points, while Otey and Burke did a fine job in holding high-scoring Willie Sojourner to a mere six points.

SENIOR BREAKFAST

There will be a Senior Class Breakfast Feb. 29. If you wish to attend, tickets are available from Senior class officers or at the SUB Business Office.

BRONCO BILL OTEY (22) attempts to sneak around Mesa Maverick John Nielson and drive toward the basket. Otey went in for a shot and Nielson ended up on the floor watching the game. Ron Austin (50) rushes in to help Otey and the Bronco cause, while an unidentified Maverick tries to aid Nielson. The BC crew wrapped up their third consecutive ICAC championship with their 81-57 win over the Mavericks.

Bronc Skiers Win EOC Invitational Meet; Plan Trek to McCall February 23 - 24

Rolling up 551 points, the Boise College ski team outraced ten other teams to capture first in the Eastern Oregon College Invitational ski meet held in La Grande Feb. 10.

Jim Cronk picked up a first place in his first run of the slalom, ending up fifth for two combined runs. The winning time was turned in by University of Ore-gon's Terry Foley with :67.5. Cronk was timed at :70.1. Rounding out the top 10 finishers for BC were Bill Richmond at :71.3 and Carter Rowles, eighth with a clocking of :72.3. Other Broncos in the action were Brian Smith, who placed 11th, Steve Chandler, 22nd and Raughn Smith, in 40th position.

As well as taking home the team trophy, the Broncos won six individual medals in the downhill, slalom and giant slalom competition.

The team, which raised its own finances for the trip, is currently financing a Feb. 23, 24 trip to McCall. If the skiers are able to raise the funds, "they'll win that one, too," says Advisor Allen Weston.

Mesa, Weber and CSI Next on Slate

The Boise College Bronco basketball team opens up a three-game road trip Friday as they once again run into the Weber State frosh at Ogden, Utah, then go to Grand Junction, Colo., Saturday to play the Mesa Mavericks. On Tuesday they meet for the big game against College of Southern Idaho at Twin Falls.

The Weber State team showed rebounding strength and good outside shooting against the Broncos last week, and utilized the speed of 5'10" Sam Bourne to an advantage on their fast break. If Willie Sojourner has a good night, the Broncos have their work cut out for them.

The Mesa Mavericks outshot Boise Saturday night, but were hampered under the boards by the Broncos. Timely rebounds atoned for the foul trouble encountered by Keith Burke and Bill Otey.

Boise hopes were undoubtedly raised after the College of Southern Idaho fell to the NIJC Cardinals in double overtime. The defeat marks only the third for the independent school over the long stretch of the '67-'68 season. The CSI Golden Eagles, the only team to beat the Broncos so far, will be facing a much improved ball club.

MANY THANKS

"The Sweetheart of Sigma Nu" has found a home at last. The new owner has put her in a place of high esteem among her own peers and announced the possibility of visiting privileges. The owner's gratitude towards the gift bearers is unmeasurable.
